You can experience stress such as anger, anxiety, pressure to do more, better, or faster, or fear. Learning to manage stress in a healthy and productive way is an important life skill. Different types of stress may require different. Evaluate in each of the following five areas of work. What are you doing right? Where can you improve? It strives for precision, neatness, organization and continuous improvement. Surround the image with the correct place option. Draws an image of a correct place setting on the tablecloth. Bullies can be girls or boys. They can be big or small. An intimate is anyone who tries to hurt you, intimidate you or force you to do something. Stalkers can attack their victims physically, verbally and emotionally. A bystander is someone who witnesses bullying. How viewers behave can have a huge effect on whether or not a bullying situation continues and how the harassed person feels. Support from even the viewer can make a big difference to someone who is being harassed. When viewers speak out, children who are being bullied feel less anxious and less depressed. In the boxes below, describe how the goal is S.M.A.R.T. Review the goal, if necessary, as you move forward. If there is a fire in your home, GO OUT, STAY OUT, and call 9-1-1. If the closed doors or their handles are warm, find an alternative exit out of the room. There may be fire on the other side of the door! Type an appropriate response to each next sentence. For example, what you say to someone who said, My name is Sarah. I just moved here. Self-show means treating you well, acting with honor and dignity, and taking good care of you.
